Dear Pandit Ji,

I heartily congratulate you on the wedding ceremony of your beloved son Pandit Baldev Ji, Shastri, B. A., and am pleased to hear that instead of wasting your money on fireworks etc., you not only arranged for religious discourses but gave away Rupees thirty thousand as donations to deserving institutions in Lahore and Nakodar. Your numerous customers are, however, sorry to note that you have not invited them to participate in the rejoicings. By God's grace you have been able to perform this ceremony in your full health and vigour. May I request, therefore, that you will also allow us to share your happiness.

MARVELLOUS CURE FOR

LEUCODERMA & LEPROSY

Leucoderma or White skin does not easily change colour and the so-called unscentific pills and oils only aggravate and in going to cure the disease create new complications. But Behar Chemical Works proudly declare that to-day they are able to place before the public scientific remedies after laborious provings and tremendous expenses—remedies that are non-irritant non-mercurial i.e., totally harmless drugs producing no reactions. These remove rapidly the white patches by supplying natural pigments and expelling all impurities from the blood. Whatever the nature of the disease, hereditary poison or any other known and unknown source of infection, chronic, or acute cases, all skin eruptions due to deficiency of colouring matter or mercurial poisoning—all cases are cured by our specifics both for internal and external uses at Rs. 10 per set to last a month. Postage extra. Writes Mr. B. Sinha from Port Blair:—The medicines for the white patches were used on my son and the patient got too much benefit from its effects a wonderful thing for the Leucoderma in the world which you are selling at such a cheap rate for the public.

Leprosy—whether Tubercular, Nodular, Lepa Maculo, Anesthetic or Smooth Leprosy, mixed or para Leprosy—all the known varieties are promptly checked and cured by our Scientific remedies including internal medicine and external drugs (application, fumigation and bath) which cost Rs. 15 per full set. Detailed information in literature sent free to all. One set lasts 45 days.

GENOA.

MR. LLOYD GEORGE ASSUMES LEADERSHIP.

HIS PROPOSAL FOR A PACT TO ABOLISH WAR.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, April, 12. GENOA.—Mr. Lloyd George will take the earliest opportunity to propose an understanding that no nation will attack another, thus abolishing the possibility of fighting for the duration of such a Pact. The acceptance of this proposal may be the turning point in the world's history.

ARBITER OF EUROPE'S DESTINIES.

NEW SUPREME COUNCIL.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, April, 12. GENOA.—The conclusion of the first day's practical business has been marked by expressions of satisfaction by those who took part in the proceedings. The squabbles of Number One Commission were succeeded by a friendly atmosphere at the subsequent meeting, which drafted the sub-committee, whose constitution caused trouble in the Commission's debates.

The sub-committee, which promises to replace the Supreme Council as the arbiter of Europe's destinies, will number eleven as follows:—

Signor Schanzer (Italy) Chairman.
Mr. Lloyd George (Britain).
M. Barthoin (France).
M. Thonnin (Belgium).
Viscount Ishi (Japan).
Herr Wirth (Germany).

GERMANY OPTIMISTIC.

ANOTHER MORAL DEFEAT FOR FRANCE.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, April, 12. BERLIN.—Germany's optimism as regards Genoa has been succeeded by a buoyant optimism, which is reflected by the improved exchange.

German correspondents at Genoa declare that Mr. Lloyd George has assumed the leadership of the Conference and that he has skillfully alienated the Russians from the French, who have suffered a moral defeat similar to that at Washington.

LITTLE ENTENTE CLAIMS CERTAIN GUARANTEES.

RUSSIAN DELEGATE EXPLAINS SOVIET BUDGET.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, April 13. Genoa.—The members of the Little Entente have decided that they must secure certain guarantees before they adhere to proposed Lloyd George Pact.

Speaking in the Finance Sub-committee Russian Delegate, M. Rakovski, stated that the London Experts' Report mainly corresponded with the Soviet wishes notably in the discontinuance of the issue of paper money. He affirmed that at present all but one seventh of the Soviet Budget deficit had been covered. The number of State officials had been reduced by 40 per cent. The Soviet Army was million and half on 1st January. He declared disarmament was necessary for the amelioration of the world's finances.

LONDON, April 13. The report of the Allied experts' meeting in London prior to the Genoa Conference recommends, regarding Russia and the preceding Governments' financial obligations, that a compensation for the foreigners who had lost the property should be mobilised in a fixed lump sum; and that pecuniary indemnities shall be acknowledged by handing over interest-bearing bonds. LONDON, April 13. On the eve of his starting of a flight round the World from Croydon on 25th, Sir Ross Smith and his brother Mr. Bennett were killed as a result of the crash after a practice flight at Brooklands this morning. The machine got into spin and crashed when approaching the aerodrome to land.

LATER.

Prior to the accident which resulted in the death of Sir Ross Smith, Captain Cookerell tested the machine for thirty minutes and handed the machine over to Sir Ross Smith, who accompanied by Mr. Bennett, ascended. They flew well for fifteen minutes in excellent flying conditions with a westerly wind of fifteen miles an hour. Suddenly, the machine developed a spin, and, apparently, the pilot lost control. ## BOMBAY CITIZENS' PROTEST.

Under the auspices of the Parsi Rajkya Sabha a public meeting to protest against the Peace Terms proposed to Turkey was held on Friday evening at the Marwadi Vidyalaya, Mr. S. R. Bomanji presiding.

Swami Satyadevi moved the first resolution which ran as follows:—
"That this public meeting of the citizens of Bombay congratulates Mustafa Kemal Pasha and the Turkish patriots on the position in the world's opinion which they have won by their heroic efforts and assures them of the sympathy and support of every patriotic Indian in their just demands as set forth in the Turkish National Pact—terms which alone are capable of producing lasting peace in the East and of restoring normal relations between Asia and Europe."

SWAMI SATYADEVI.
Swami Satyadevi said the last great European war had taught a great and lasting lesson to Asia and especially to India. For instance they knew that the idea of taking Mesopotamia was to run up to India in the shortest time possible in case there was a rising in India. They had reached a time when to become independent no arms and ammunition was required, but the realization of independence. Mustafa Kemal Pasha felt that inspiration and realization and that was the reason why for the sake of his country he was fighting single handed against a mighty foe, viz., Greece. India was sending money to Mustafa Kemal Pasha, but what he required most was love and sympathy.

MR. F. J. GINWALA.
Mr. F. J. Ginwala, Solicitor, in seconding the resolution said India was fighting for the Khilafat, the Punjab wrongs and Swatavia. Thanks to Mahatma Gandhi we have convinced England and the world about the righteousness of our cause. Lord Curzon had proposed that they were prepared to recommend Greece to evacuate Asia Minor, but nothing was said of Smyrna. Likewise on Adrianople, Gallipoli, Dardanelles and holy places they were either silent or their terms were unsatisfactory. In spite of their promises to uphold Turkish integrity, Lord Curzon and Mr. Lloyd George were helping Greece with gold. Unless they concluded peace on the terms offered by the Angora Government there will never be a lasting peace.

MR. B. F. BHARUCHA.
Mr. B. F. Bharucha in further supporting the resolution said the resolution was divided into three parts, viz., (1) Felicitations to Mustafa Kemal Pasha, (2) assurance of every patriotic Indian for the cause of Young Turks and (3) definite expression of opinion that unless Turkish Treaty was made on the terms laid down by Moslem brethren and by the Council of Angora Government there shall not be peace in the Middle East or Near East, nor will there be peace in Europe or in the world. He compared the 14 principles of President Wilson with what the Allies proposed now and said, no amount of camouflage no amount of paper treaty, and no amount of placating will bring about peace unless the terms settled by the Angora Government were accepted.

"ALLIES' TERMS UNACCEPTABLE."
Mr. Marmaduke Pickthall then moved:—
"That this meeting, considering the cablegram sent by the Government of India to the Government of England with regard to the Turkish Peace Terms as a step in the right direction, but is strongly of opinion that the peace terms proposed by England and France to Turkey are unjustifiable and unacceptable and they cannot placate Moslem feeling here and abroad."

MR. PICKTHALL'S SPEECH.
Mr. Pickthall said:—
Mr. Bomanji, ladies and gentlemen. You will hear people asking why the Muslims of the British Empire are so deeply interested in the fate of Turkey, and why they excite themselves so much about a matter which cannot be considered to concern them very closely. Well, the Muslims of the British Empire are one of them—subjects of the British Empire; that is true; but they are also members of a great world-brotherhood having its own civilisation and social and political ideals. That world brotherhood is built up around certain institutions which have a fixed geographical home, and of which the organisation cannot be destroyed or altered without offence and injury to every Muslim in the world.

ISLAM'S IDEAL OF BROTHERHOOD.
Of the claims of this world-brotherhood upon humanity I need not remind my present audience. The mere fact that it is a real brotherhood, in which every man and woman, is welcome and has honoured place, irrespective of colour, race or class—the only absolutely comprehensive, practical human brotherhood which has ever existed—is enough to indicate its value to the world. If you admit that the ideal of human brotherhood and mutual help under the kingship of the one God is higher than the ideal of commercial exchange, you will agree with me that it would be a world-disaster for Turkey and the Muslim Holy Land, which are, respectively, the head and heart of the Islamic polity—to be subjected to the yoke of a non-Muslim Power.

THE HOLY PLACES.

The Muslim Holy Land is in reality the Holy Land of the whole human race. The wish of Muslims is to keep it holy and, if God wills, to reproduce in it that bright example of true human progress which amazed the world in the first centuries of Muslim history. The world of Islam has not yet fully come to terms with modern life; when it does so, we expect a glory of true progress greater than has ever yet been seen on earth. It is in Turkey, a Muslim country in close touch with Europe, that the transition of Islam from old to new conditions was taking place quite naturally and peacefully when all these troubles came upon us from the hand of Europe. We value the progressive Muslim spirit of the Turk, we value his close touch with Europe so much that we consider independent Turkey absolutely necessary to the future welfare of Islam. It is not for nothing in our eyes that the Sultan of Turkey, the Khalifa of the Muslims, has his seat upon the soil of Europe. It is a symbol of a wished-for friendship and alliance in the way of progress. Unfortunately Europe fails or has failed till now, to realise our Muslim point of view.

MUSLIMS MISUNDERSTOOD.

Some people talk as if the Muslims were a danger. It reminds one of the French saying: Cette bête est bien méchante; elle se défend—"this animal is very vicious; it defends itself." What is called Muslim fanaticism, if you study history closely, is only natural energy in self-defence. No Muslim in the world to-day is wishing to embark on a career of conquest. All we want is peace on such conditions that we may be able to develop our own civilisation and pursue our own ideals, secure from persecution and attack.

MISREUSE AN OLD STORY.

There was a time, no doubt, when Turkey, like all empires, harboured much injustice. But that time is long past. And it is noteworthy that so long as Turkey could be called corrupt she was tolerated and to some extent supported by the Powers of Europe; but when she began to reform and revive, the same Powers aimed at her complete destruction, and thus forced the great progressive movement of Islam, which wished for Europe's friendship, into an attitude of hostility towards Europe. We Muslims are not aggressive against any section of mankind; we only strive, in self-defence for what is absolutely necessary to our future welfare of our brotherhood. We should not support our Khalifa in wrong-doing, nor should we oppose any Power that was doing right. The Turkish Empire is our country in a special sense, but more so now that it is suffering such cruel wrong. Anywhere on earth where wrong is done, within his knowledge, the Muslim has a duty to perform: to try and right that wrong. People with such ideals are not bad subjects of any Government, Muslim or non-Muslim, which does right. It is their duty to protest, as loyal God-fearing subjects, against wrong-doing by the Government under which they live. Their views are fixed and perfectly well-known. Wise Government would make allowance for them in its policy. In short, we Muslims are not dreadful ogres. We are only windmills grinding corn for human use. To treat us as a "danger" is sheer madness. England, in the past, made due allowance for our idiosyncrasies. She was tolerant, and just; she kept her promise when she made one. We regarded her almost as a Muslim Power. Then came a change. It burst upon us suddenly, though it had been coming for a long time unperceived by us. England, the friend of liberty and progress, the protector of the Muslim brotherhood against aggression, became allied with Czarist Russia, the greatest enemy to liberty and progress, whose avowed aim was the ruin of the Muslim brotherhood.

ALLIANCE WITH RUSSIA.

You know what happened to Islam in consequence of that alliance, how the Muslim Empire was attacked incessantly and robbed of territory. And England lost prestige enormously by that alliance. I remember hearing Sir Edward Grey say, in the House of Commons, that things had come to such a pass that England could not now exist without the Russian alliance; I remember hearing foreigners disgustedly declare that England had become a third-class Power attached to Russia. England was a third-class European Power. Her strength was outside Europe, and her reserve of strength was here in Asia, if she had but known. By deliberately alienating Asia on the Turkish Question in order to obtain "alliance" with a foreign Power which hated her, she cut off her own legs to please an envious neighbour. Had she relied on her own people she could have defied the envy of the world, and, I verily

GREEKS UNABLE TO ACCEPT ANGORA COUNTERPROPOSALS

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

ANTI-TURKISH AGITATION IN THE COMMONS.

"MASSACRE WOULD FOLLOW WITHDRAWAL OF GREEKS."

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, April, 12. In the House of Commons Mr. T. P. O'Connor raised the question of the proposed term to Greece and Turkey and hoped that the Allies would refuse to accept the Turkish proposal that the Greeks should immediately evacuate Asia Minor. He feared a massacre would follow the withdrawal of the Greeks and appealed for adequate Allied supervision of the evacuation.

Sir J. D. Ross protested against Mr. O'Connor's anti-Turkish agitation which was not calculated to placate their Moslem fellow-subjects. Mr. C. Harmsworth deprecated the controversy at the present moment in view of the delicacy of the diplomatic situation and emphasised the Allies would superintend the evacuation, after which he hoped the League of Nations would appoint Commissioners permanently to supervise the welfare of the minorities. He expressed the opinion that the anxiety expressed with regard to the intermediate period was exaggerated but promised to submit these views to the proper quarter.

In the House of Commons, replying to Sir Thomas Bennett, Earl Winterton emphasised that Lord Peel realised the uncertainty existing with regard to whether the Indian Civil servants wishing to retire in consequence of changes under the Government of India Act should be allowed longer time for decision than afforded by the resolution of the Government of India, and he would announce the decision as soon as possible.

BRITISH INFLUENCE, THE ROOT CAUSE.

SCATHING CRITICISMS BY PERSIAN PRESS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, April 13. Teheran.—The situation in Persia is reflected by the following Press criticisms: The "Ettelad" (Unity) calls the refugees in the Russian Legation spies and traitors and expresses hatred against M. Rothstein, the Russian Minister. We are prepared to sacrifice ourselves for our country and to oppose illegal intervention of the aliens," declares the journal.

The "Haqiqat" (Truth) attacks Vosough-ud-Dowleh and Syed Ziauddin ex-Premiers now in Europe, even Mushir-ud-Dowleh, the present Premier and his brother Motammas-ul-Mulk, the President of the Mejlis (Parliament), and many other nobilities. "They are the causes of the present misfortunes and miseries of Persia. They must be condemned and killed as revolutionaries. We demand that the British should stop their crimes and tyrannies in Persia. Vosough-ud-Dowleh and Syed Ziauddin ex-Premiers vants of the British and they should be obliged to flee from the country."

The "Shafak Sorkh" (Red Dawn) says the Crown Prince demanded funds on his return to Persia at a critical money crisis. The unfortunate people have to bear the burden to pay for debaucheries, dissipations and other acts of ignominy of His Imperial Highness.

The "Iran Azad" (Free Persia) in a leading article calls the members of the Mejlis unfaithful sons who were elected in a most shameful manner and brought into power by orders from the Durbars in London and who work for the development of the policy of influence of the British Government and most of whom are strong supporters of the obnoxious Anglo-Persian Treaty. "We need a parliament that people can trust, which should uphold their rights and rule the country on constitutional principles and not by despotism. What is the Shah doing in Europe? What has he done for his country during his reign except trading in grain market while the poor people are dying of starvation. He is a coward devoid of courage and will-power. The Amir of Afghanistan teaches his people to be loyal, honest and brave. The figurehead of Persia takes occasional trips to Europe, wastes wealth of the country, and tramples on the tombs of the martyrs of his country but places wreath on the grave of the foreign unknown warriors." The paper attacks the Premier about illegal actions during his tenure of office and invites people to take steps to blot out these causes of shame and disgrace.

PANDIT MALAVIYA'S LECTURE PROHIBITED.

LAHORE MAGISTRATE'S ORDER.

PANDITJI'S REPLY.

DETERMINED TO HOLD THE MEETING.

POLICE SURROUND BRADLAUGH HALL.

HARTAL ALL OVER INDIA.

(Associated Press.)

LAHORE, April 12. Pandit Malaviya is here to-day and is staying in the house of Lala Lajpat Rai. He attends the meeting of the members of the Lahore City Congress Committee where he will address the members on the work before them. The Panditji will stay in the Punjab for a few days, and will tour in the different districts. He visits Amritsar, so-morrow, and leaves for Calcutta on the 18th instant to attend the meeting of the Working Committee of the Congress.

The meeting of the City Congress Committee which was to take place this evening at the Bradlaugh Hall and where Pandit Malaviya was to address the members of the Committee on the "Work before us" has been prohibited under order of the District Magistrate under the Seditious Meetings Act. The District Magistrate held the meeting to be a public meeting within the Seditious Meetings Act.

THE MAGISTRATE'S ORDER.

The following order was served on Mr. Gopichand, President of the City Congress Committee immediately before the meeting took place at the Bradlaugh Hall this evening:—

"It has been brought to my notice that a public meeting is to be held this evening at 6 p.m. at Bradlaugh Hall. The Senior Superintendent of Police has interviewed Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya who is to speak at the meeting, and has also been in communication with Mr. Santanam who has informed him that admission in the meeting will be restricted to persons providing themselves to be the members of the City Congress Committee. Mr. Santanam admits the membership of the Committee to be 5,000 more or less. I hold the meeting to be a public meeting within the S. M. Act. Provisions of Section 4 of the Act have not been complied with by the conveners; although with a possible attendance of 5,000 persons it is obvious public excitement will be aroused. In my opinion this meeting held on this date in a large hall and with persons pledged to non-cooperation with the Government is likely to cause a disturbance of public tranquility. I accordingly prohibit the meeting under Section of the Prevention of the Seditious Meetings Act and direct the Senior Superintendent of Police to give an immediate public notice thereof.

M. L. FERRAR, District Magistrate.

According to the order the Senior Superintendent of Police informed Pandit Malaviya regarding the prohibition of the meeting and the latter went to the Bradlaugh Hall where about 3,000 people had assembled and adjourned the meeting asking the people to disperse quietly. The meeting immediately broke off and people dispersed in a peaceful manner.

"MAHATMA IN JAIL."

To the Editor, "Bombay Chronicle."

Sir, Mr. Achariar stated in his account of the interview he had with Mahatma Gandhi, that the latter kept standing throughout the interview. Does the Director of Information mean that even this is deferential treatment to the saint? I know it on personal knowledge that even Swami Krishnanand of Karachi, who is in the Sabarnai Jail, sentenced to one year rigorous, was allowed to sit throughout our interview with him. Why then, is Mahatma treated like ordinary criminals? Yours, etc., J. K. Bhavnani.

BRITAIN'S BROKEN PLEDGES?

believe, the European war would have been avoided. No one who is not one of us can know the anguish which we Muslims have been made to suffer in the last ten years.

BROKEN PLEDGES!

Well, Czarist Russia fell, and we then hoped that England would become herself again. Mr. Lloyd George's pledge concerning Turkey came to strengthen our hope. That solemn pledge, given to the Government and people of India, was broken, in favour of a secret agreement with a less than third-rate foreign Power, in the iniquitous draft Treaty of Sevres. What did the Government of India do on that occasion? We know that it objected strongly to the terms of the said Treaty, and that Mr. Montagu in London did his best to emphasise the views of India. But when the Treaty was published the Viceroy, instead of handing in his resignation, issued a circular which undertook to show that black was really white, that Mr. Lloyd George though he had broken his promise had really kept it after all, in his own way! How could the people of India appreciate the work done by the Government on their behalf in face of such a piece of time-serving as that circular?

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA'S EFFORTS.

I need not detail what has happened since then. The Government of India has worked hard for the realisation of India's views on the Khilafat Question, trying to prevail upon the Government of England to do right instead of wrong and to keep England's solemn pledges. But, though it has used the agitation of the people as its strongest argument it has not worked with the people of India. If it had sided frankly with the people, all our internal troubles might be now have ceased and the present Government, instead of being one of the last of an expiring order, might have been the first Dominion Government of India, heralding a real new era. It has treated the non-violent agitation as an enemy, and has imprisoned nearly all its leaders, even that great man whom history will, I think, declare to be the truest friend that England had in India. We who know the hidden tendencies which are at work, and the difficulty of restraining them without the presence of Mahatma, are sorely puzzled by that action of the Government.

NOT YET TOO LATE.

But it is not, even now, too late. The cablegram of the Government of India which led to Mr. Montagu's resignation was much appreciated by the Indian people, and Mr. Montagu's resignation in connection with it showed that the Government was really fighting India's battle in this matter earnestly. If the Government of India will stand or fall by that message and refuse to hear of any other terms than those suggested in it, if it is prepared to force Lloyd George and Curzon to keep England's promises given to so great a multitude of British subjects, if only it will now take side wholeheartedly with India; then, not only will it be in the way to quick solution of the problems which now trouble us, but it will be vindicating the outraged honour of England and restoring the good name for honesty of Englishmen throughout the East.

MR. GAZHUR AHMED.

Mr. Zahur Ahmed a non-co-operator barrister in seconding the resolution said, the Government of India had said in their telegram which was the occasion for Mr. Montagu's resignation that it was a step towards the right direction. In that telegram Government of India had recommended that Constantinople be given to Turks, holy places to remain under their suzerainty, with Thrace, and holy city of Adrianople and Smyrna should be also restored to Turks. He said what the Government of India supported by Lord Northcliffe wanted to give to Turks, Lord Curzon and Mr. Lloyd George had taken away and were giving them to Hellenes. They were giving Gallipoli to the Hellenes. The idea was to keep enemy of Constantinople always before her. (This was another instance of the policy of divide and rule.) But India was not so silly as not to see through the sugar coated pills. He then read a passage from the speech of Mr. Lloyd George delivered in January, 1920, in which he said:—

"Without their (Indian Muslims) aid we should not have conquered Turks at all. We were to have broken faith with them in the hour of victory. We might go to them and say 'the circumstances have changed'. But I will tell you what they might have said. Whenever the British word was given again in the East they should have said, 'Yes, you mean to keep faith, but you always, somehow or other, find an unanswerable reason when the time comes for breaking it.'"

There is nothing which would damage British power in Asia more than the feeling that you could not trust the British word. He said in view of what was transpiring in Europe Lord Reading should have resigned his post. Smyrna had 68 per cent. of Moslem population, the rest of Asia Minor had 83 per cent. Eastern and Western Thrace 66 per cent., and Gallipoli was absolutely Turkish. He failed therefore to understand why these countries should not be given to Turkey entirely. Mr. B. N. Motilala further seconded the resolution which was put to vote and carried unanimously.

MR. MONTAGU'S RESIGNATION DEPLORED.

At this stage the electric light failed and the third resolution was put by Mr. Abdul Gani and seconded by Mr. Hiralal Mehta while the hall was still unlit. It was carried unanimously.

The resolution ran thus:— "That this meeting of the citizens of Bombay, most of whom are opposed to the Montagu-Chelmsford Scheme and condemn the repressive policy of the last eighteen months profoundly deplores the circumstances which led to the resignation of the Right Hon. E. S. Montagu, a friend of India and Islam, a vindicator of the right of India to make her voice heard in the settlement of the Khilafat question in spite of the intrigues and secret counsels of the British Cabinet."

The Chairman in winding up the proceedings said the whole of India was in full sympathy with their Muslim brethren and the Angora Government in their hour of trial. He was going to leave the Indian shores the next day for three or four months, but he hoped when he returned he would see in all the streets of Bombay and all over India men, women and children clad in Khaddar and thus carry out Mahatma Gandhi's injunction.

Mr. Bomanji was then garlanded by Mr. Givwala, Solicitor on behalf of the Parsi Rajkiji Sabha and by Mr. Hiralal Mehta on behalf of the Hindu community, and the meeting terminated amidst shouts of "Mahatma Gandhi-ki-jai."

SYMPATHY FOR THE POOR

MRS. GANDHI'S MESSAGE

A message from Mrs. Kasturbai Gandhi, who is at present engaged to Khadi propaganda work in Bardoli, is published in the "Navajivan" of last Thursday of which the following is a translation:—

The readers of my message are possibly well off. But the majority of our countrymen are starving. To realise how miserable is the condition of our people one should visit villages. One can also get an idea of the same in the slums and the localities of the poor people in cities like Ahmedabad and Bombay.

If we do not wake up to realise these things that get to eat to-day will starve to-morrow. Starvation like consumption is increasing in the country. How long will the people tolerate these sufferings? Because it is India people undergo even this much suffering. If we shall take no notice of this one cannot say what will become of the country.

We must begin to live a different life. The poor and the rich must begin to work and lead a simple life. The wealthy should mix with the poor and sympathise with their grievances.

The Government does not know that its well-being lies in the well-being of the people. It suffers from evil genius. The country is on the sure path of destruction if the wealthy class of people remains as indifferent as the Government. Everyone thinks of self-interest. It behoves us to think of others as well.

We should impart national education to our children and teach them to spin. We must strictly use Swadeshi goods. Starvation will be on the increase if we patronise foreign goods.

How is it that my sisters do not think of how great is the sin which incur by the use of foreign cloth? If they want to wear fine clothes let them spin fine yarn. It is the special privilege of women to maintain a scrupulously the religious practices. Let it never be said that because the women of India could not give up pleasures India could not attain Swaraj.

KHADI MARRIAGE AT BERANI

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

The marriage of Sikh Bhograj, the leading Nationalist worker of the village Berani, District Nawabshah was a unique demonstration of the purifying spirit of the present movement of freedom and love. Several guests both Hindus and Moslem had come from various places including Shimriti Saraswati Devi and Dr. Raj Kasim from Karachi, Dr. Parmannand from Hyderabad, Sind and Mir Allah Bakhsh Khan from Mirpurkhas. The marriage ceremonies lasted two days, 6th and 7th instant.

Boarding and lodging arrangements for both Hindus and Moslem guests were made in the same place and they dined at the same table. Almost all the guests, both local and foreign were clad in khadi. The chief entertainment was patriotic speeches and songs in place of liquor and music by dancing girls. The first day of the occasion was especially marked with fast by almost all guests and the whole of the village.

The marriage procession had also Nationalist songs and a Charkha as the chief items of attraction. The bridegroom refused to take costly foreign silk dresses as dowry in the open 'majlis' and took only a Charkha and Khaddi clothes.

Both the bride and bridegroom were entirely clad in khaddar. Several public meetings both for men and women were organized and lectures given. Shimriti Saraswati was the moving spirit in all these meetings and she had especial success with Muslim ladies.

Drs. Haji Kasim and Parmannand and Mir Allah Bakhsh Khan were the chief speakers in men's meetings.

Both Bhograj is a very zealous nationalist worker, and he has offered his big market in the heart of the village for khadi manufacture.

BHIL SITUATION

ALLEGED MILITARY ACTION.

APPEAL TO THE AGENT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

SIMLA, April 13.
Mr. Manilal Kothari, a prominent Congress worker in Rajputana has sent the following telegram to the agent to the Government in Rajputana regarding Bhil situation.

I hear extensive preparations are made by the Government and Gujrat, Rajputana State for the arrest of Motilal leader of the Bhils and that yesterday Shirohi State and the Government troops took aggressive military action in the village Siava near Abu Road for the exaction of the revenue dues entailing some loss of life. Bhuts and large quantities of gram were also burnt down by the military. Very serious situation is likely to be created which, I had to submit, it is highly essential to avert in the present state of affairs in the country. I am trying for the last few days to help the settlement of the Bhil Girasias in Palanpur state which is trying by sympathetic and peaceful means so far to meet the situation and am advising the Bhil Girasias of different States to settle down peacefully and seek redress of their grievances by strictly peaceful and constitutional means.

The military action for the exaction of the revenue dues or for the arrest of Motilal is highly undesirable, since it will frustrate all the efforts for peaceful settlement, will inevitably entail heavy expenses and thus create an alarmingly serious situation in Rajputana and Gujrat. The last military action at Polo in the Mahiwanth agency according to the reports received was both unnecessary and unjustifiable and caused heavier loss of life than reported in the Government communiqué. The Bhil Girasias have now settled down in their respective states and they do nothing to disturb or in any way prejudice the peace of the country. They decline to pay the revenue dues, because they want reduction in the present high rates and also redress of their innumerable grievances. The present situation, therefore, does not at all warrant or justify military action, but only require a serious and sincere attempt on the part of the states concerned to at once remove the root cause of discontent and effect a settlement with these God fearing and peace loving people, if necessary with the help of the responsible public workers. Knowing your true Christian heart feeling for the sufferings of these people and your readiness to do everything just and reasonable for their upliftment I respectfully appeal to you and Pandit Ramakanta Malviya, than whom both the state and the people cannot get abler and honest gentleman to serve them, to at once suspend all the military operations, withdraw all troops and immediately advise respectively to settle with their Bhil Girasias in a manner which would ensure their mutual welfare and permanent peace in Rajputana and Gujrat. If intermediaries are needed states can trust me and my friend Mr. Pathik to help in the settlement.

UNREST IN CENTRAL INDIA.

BHILS NOT PAYING REVENUE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

SIMLA, April 11.
The action at Pal on the 7th March, in which 22 Bhils were killed and 29 wounded, has had a salutary effect throughout the Kherwara Bhumat of the Mewar State, where the Bhils are now friendly and paying the revenue. Motilal, their leader, has entirely disappeared and no trace of him can be found. There is a persistent rumor that Motilal has been killed after the action at Pal by his own followers, many of whom are now very bitter against him. The headmen of Jawas, the largest of the Bhumat Estates, presented themselves before the Resident in Mewar on the 17th March, and expressed themselves satisfied with the liberal concessions recently announced and dissociated themselves from the recent agitation.

The situation in the Kotra Bhumat has however, given cause for anxiety. Recently bands of highly excited Bhils besieged the chiefs of the three Kotra Estates and for a short time cut communications with Kotra. A force of Udaipur Troops, under a British officer, was ordered out as a reinforcement to the Mewar Bhil Corps Detachment. The arrival at Kotra on the 23rd March, after a march through the disaffected tribes, has had a good effect. Since then the situation has steadily improved and it is anticipated that a peaceful settlement of the grievances of the Bhils in the Kotra Bhumat will be effected.

SIROHI STATE

The Bhils at Rohra in the Sirohi State were also reported to be in a restless condition and Major H. H. N. Pritchard of the Political Department, was deputed to investigate their grievances. The Bhils and Grassias however, avoided meeting him. On the 5th April the Sirohi Darbar reported that the villagers had become increasingly contumacious and were obstructing the collection of the State share of the crops already raised. The Chief Minister of the Sirohi State, accompanied by Major Pritchard and an escort of State troops accordingly proceeded to Siava, a village near Abu Road on the 6th April. The villagers, who were highly excited, declared that they had bound themselves to refuse the payment of revenue. They fired two shots, without injuring anyone, and eventually beat drum to raise the countryside.

The Grassias have since looted the excise contractor's shop at Siava and have threatened to close the pilgrim route to the Ambika in the Danta State territory. A detachment of the Mewar Bhil Corps is being despatched at the request of the Sirohi Darbar to strengthen the State forces.

PROPAGANDA SCHEME.

(REUTERS' TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, April 13.
The Rubber Growers' Association propaganda scheme proposes that each producing company shall guarantee an amount equivalent to a shilling per acre of the rubber planted of which not more than sixpence will be called for this year. The minimum total guarantee aimed at is £25,000, and the scheme of operations is of far-reaching character. It includes the development of new uses of rubber, as for example its use in paper-making, and embraces the publicity and advertising campaign involving co-operation of manufacturers and distributors.

MONTAGU'S REPORT.

(REUTERS' TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, April 13.
Montagu's report states that business in inactive America is a slaughter and, occasionally, a buyer. India and China each contributed supplies. The mainstay has been beer covering.

The speediest possible return to gold standard is the Allied experts' main recommendation regarding the stabilisation of currency. This should be assisted by the association of central banks, also by an international convention for the purpose of centralising and co-ordinating the demand for gold in order to avoid the fluctuations in price which are likely to follow the competitive efforts by a number of countries to secure metallic reserves. Each country should be left free to decide whether to adopt old gold parity or new parity approximating to the present exchange value of its currency. Experts advise early the abandonment of the restriction on the imports and exports which is applied in certain countries with the object of temporarily protecting their finances.

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE.

Saturday, April 15, 1922.

A FUTILE EFFORT.

It was entirely to be expected that had on the heels of the Government of India's publication of a communique which sought to suggest that the Allies' intentions towards Turkey were most benevolent there should come Reuter's report evidence of their bad faith. For the rejection of the Turkish suggestion that a condition of the proposed Armistice should be the Greek evacuation of Asia

Minor, indicates how little of the mere spirit of fairness animates those who, jockeyed by Lord Curzon, would fail achieve the ruin of Turkey and the aggrandisement of Greece. Since the presence of Greek forces in Asia Minor is due to the Allies' invitation of 1919, it was surely the merest justice that the Allies should support the Turks' suggestion that a Greek evacuation of Asia Minor be made a condition of the Armistice—especially as the Allies have since admitted through a special commission of enquiry that the Greeks obtained permission to occupy Asia Minor under the most false of pretences and on the strength of the blackest of lies. But because it serves the interests of philhellenic propaganda that the Greek hold on Asia

Minor should be ostensibly a strong one the Greeks are not ordered by the Allies to evacuate the country they have tried in vain to wrest from the Turks by force of arms. And in the House of Commons

Mr. T. P. O'Connor has been exploiting this "point" with all the unscrupulous ingenuity he can command—fearing, he says, that a massacre would follow the withdrawal of the Greeks. This, of the zone where the foulest atrocities hitherto known in modern history have been perpetrated only lately by the Greeks! Perhaps what Mr.

T. P. O'Connor fears is that the Turks may resort to reprisals—but by the philhellenic code it is only "Christians" who may undertake reprisals while

Muslims must always massacre. Indeed, from the crusader's point of view, the Muslim Turkish Army which dares to defeat with great slaughter a pious

Christian Greek force which invades

Turkish territory is acting most im-piously. But it were too great a digression did we here analyse Mr. O'Connor's sudden "fears." Suffice it to state that these are of a piece with all solicitude for the safety of Christian minorities under the act. For Mr. Montagu's arrogated intention was deliberately to disturb the public tranquility—the "placid pathetic contentment of the masses." Similarly, every meeting of, let us say,

Tata Bank shareholders, tends to disturb public tranquility and should be prohibited. As for meetings of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce addressed by Sir R. M. Watson

Smythe, or meetings of the European Association—these should never be allowed since they disturb public tranquility to a degree no other meetings do. Indeed, were it not for the fact that the public is tranquilly indifferent as to what passes at Legislative Council gatherings, these would also be prohibited under the Act. But the Lahore Congress meeting aimed at restoring the public tranquility by assuring the Congressmen present that Swaraj was attainable and shortly to be attained.

Persia.

Like all vices, Capitalist Imperialism carries with it its own punishment. Being capitalist—that is mercenary—it is grasping and ever greedy for more. Sooner or later this greed brings about its own undoing. The news we publish regarding Persia is an interesting illustration of this law of just retribution in operation. The British name is now reviled in Persia because the greed of capitalist-imperialist statesmen over-reached itself. British schemes aimed at making Persia a dependency—to be exploited as unscrupulously as only the Kings of Oil can exploit. The result was that Persia recoiled—stepping back back into the arms of the anti-capitalist

Bolsheviks. And to-day the Shah of Persia is deemed a traitor and a puppet of European statesmen, the Persian Parliament is denounced by the people as a packed, dishonest and unpatriotic assembly, and the final extinction of British "influence" in Persia is at hand. We are not sorry. We regard the lesson which English imperialists are to receive as little as a mother might regret the spanking her erring child has deserved and obtained.

All the rest to-day is at one in its determination to administer similar well-merited chastigation to greedy imperialists. Egypt,

Iraq, Palestine, Persia, Arabia, China and

India will each teach grasping that their policy and works are immoral and therefore must ultimately fail. The East recognises this retributive law as the law of God. The West must be brought to a similar understanding and enlightenment.

The Rise of the Die-Hards.

"Truth" writes:—

Viscount Peel has been in "public life"

a long time, and, in the meanwhile, has reached the age of 55 without proving himself a superman. But if India rather requires a superman just now, he is wanting on the spot rather than in Whitehall,

and there is still a possibility that Lord

Reading may supply the want. He has risen to the "super" degree in more lines

CALCUTTA, April 11.
The Magistrate, who inquired into the allegations made against the military police who cleared the entrance to the railway station at Chittagong in October, 1921, when certain prisoners were being despatched by train, has found there was no justification for describing the incident as "Gurkha Outrage" and a resolution published to-day says the Governor-in-Council agrees with the view.

COMMERCE MEMBER'S ASSURANCES TO INDIAN CHAMBER.

A meeting of the Committee of the Indian Merchants' Chamber and Bureau was held on Friday the 7th instant at 12 noon to meet the Hon. Mr. O. A. Innes, Member in Charge of the Department of Commerce, Mr. H. F. Knight, I.C.S., Director of Commercial Intelligence, Bombay was also present.

Mr. Purshotamdas Thakurdas, President of the Chamber, referred in the beginning to the telegram sent by the Committee regarding the permanent appointment of the Hon. Mr. Innes as Member in Charge of the Department of Commerce and explained that the Committee in sending their telegram were actuated only by a matter of principle which was that an Indian should be in charge of such an important Department as the Department of Commerce, and had nothing personally to say against the Hon. Member himself. He observed that there were specially two matters which his Committee wanted to discuss with him at the meeting viz., (a) Railway Committee Report and (b) Purchase of Stores and machinery as far as the now loan to be floated in London this year is concerned. His committee were extremely anxious that strict economy should be exercised in these purchases which unfortunately was not the case last year at least. The Government of India were either helpless or there was some difficulty of which the Committee were not aware. A satisfactory solution of the question of purchase of stores abroad in the cheapest market would not be arrived at till tenders were called for and given from India. The remarks of Earl Winter-ton, the Under Secretary of State for India, confirmed the apprehensions of the Committee according to some of them. Mr. Purshotamdas himself did not wish to put any construction upon these remarks at least for the present but he would say that the various recommendations made by the Indian Legislature and the Chamber should be put into practice at once. If these suggestions were left in Committee stage for some time longer it would be tantamount to shutting the door after the horse had bolted. He asked whether the Committee were wrong in inferring that the interests of India were not being looked after as they should be.

WHAT GOVERNMENT HAVE DONE.

The Hon. Mr. Innes said that the Committee evidently were not aware of the action taken by the Government of India on the resolutions moved by Sir Vithaldas Thakursey and the Hon. Mr. Lalubhai Samaldas in the September session of the Legislature, and he referred them to the correspondence with the High Commissioner published in Volume II No. 49 of the Official Reports of the Assembly. He admitted that for a temporary period the High Commissioner had given preference to a limited extent to British manufacturers, but the Government now had asked that any action of the kind should be stopped, and that the Store Department in London should revert to the ordinary business principle of accepting the lowest satisfactory tender. The High Commissioner had also been asked to put a stop to the method of disclosing foreign tenders to the British manufacturers. At the present time British manufacturers quoted rates which were lower than those quoted by Germany and Belgium. Regarding the last statement of the Hon. Member, some members of the Committee observed that their experience did not bear it out.

COLONIAL SYSTEM.

The President asked why should not the High Commissioner be asked only to collect tenders in London and send them on here, as is being done by the different self-governing Colonies. With regard to all these Colonies he understood tenders have to be submitted to their headquarters and it would be but fitting that the same procedure should be adopted by the Government of India.

The Hon. Mr. Innes replying to this said that there was an expert staff in England and not in India. The Government were going to have an expert organisation in India also, but it would take some time longer to build it up. The aim in view certainly should be to transfer the centre of gravity in the matter of the purchase of stores to this country. In fact the object of the organisation of a Stores Department was gradually to effect such a transfer. But it would take time. He was against any sort of hastening with regard to this question, and he thought that the interests of the country would best be served by moving slowly.

Mr. Petit strongly protested against the idea that India should move slowly with regard to such a vital question and the President also asked why had the system worked so well in the Colonies if the Government were so nervous about it. He emphasised that his Committee were convinced that it was the only way in which the people could be made to believe the bona fides of the Government regarding their intentions. We urged that the process of transfer should be accelerated even though carefully.

In reply to a question, Mr. Innes stated that the High Commissioner had been asked to submit a half-yearly statement of all cases in which tenders other than the lowest had been accepted. Some members of the Committee pointed out that under this procedure it would be about a year before the Government of India or the Members of the Indian Legislature would criticise any particular purchase after it was made.

RAILWAY COMMITTEE'S RECOMMENDATION.

The President expressed the regret of the Committee that the Government of India while accepting the recommendations of the Railway Committee were securing funds was concerned dealt with their report in a piecemeal manner and that if any report of a Committee deserved prompt consideration it was this report. The Government had so far disregarded even points on which the whole of the Railway Committee was unanimous in the report, e.g., the Central Advisory Council and Local Advisory Councils.

Mr. Innes thought that the Chamber would have been the first to complain if the decision of a very urgent matter such as that of the five-year programme of capital expenditure had been deferred pending the consideration of the other numerous recommendations of the Acworth Committee. As regards Advisory Councils, the Government attached much importance to this part of the Acworth Committee's report. They were in sympathy with the suggestion that Railway Administrations should be brought as much as possible into touch with public opinion, and they had already addressed Railway Administrations and Local Governments on the subject of local Advisory Councils. They had already constituted a Central Advisory Council. It was not composed precisely as the Acworth Committee had proposed. But it contained representatives of every Province and of many of the Chambers of Commerce, and it was always available for consultation when the Legislature was sitting. Mr. Purshotamdas pointed out that the elected representative of the Chamber had not been appointed a member of the Railway Advisory Council.

Mr. Innes replied that the Hon. Mr. P. C. Sethna, a member of the Indian Merchants' Chamber and Bureau was a member of the Council.

Mr. Manmohandas Ramji drew the attention of the Hon. Member to the fact that in answer to an interpellation put by him in the Legislative Assembly the Government had replied that the Legislature would be given ample opportunity for discussing the Report of the Railway Committee. No such opportunity had been given.

Mr. Innes pointed out that the Report had been in the hands of Members of the Legislature for some months. The question of separating the Railway Budget and of capital expenditure had been brought before the Assembly and it was open to Members to move Resolutions on any recommendation. This closed the discussion and the meeting dispersed after the President had thanked Mr. Innes for his interview.

PROPOSED PEACE TERMS.

A DELHI PROTEST.

The following resolution has been passed by the executive body of the Provincial Khilafat Committee:

"This meeting of the Executive body of the Provincial Khilafat Committee fully and wholeheartedly endorses the resolutions passed by the Central Khilafat Committee of India regarding the proposed peace terms with Turkey, and feels constrained to state that these terms which seek to internationalise Smyrna and assign Gallipoli, Western Thrace and Adrianople to the Muslims, Greeks are not acceptable to the feelings and religious sentiments of the Muslims. Further it is the considered opinion of this meeting that the various other restrictions imposed are positively injurious to the independence of Turkey, and based on absolute injustice."

This meeting warns the Government that no true Muslim, whatever his nationality or country, can possibly rest satisfied so long as the purely religious demands of the Muslims in respect of the Jazirat-ul-Arab and the holy places are not accepted in full, and so long as their demands are disregarded and ignored, as has recently been done by the British Foreign Secretary.

PROHIBITION OF COW SLAUGHTER.

Mr. S. H. Jhabwala has addressed a letter to the members of the Bombay Municipal Corporation urging them to support Mr. W. T. Halli's motion for prohibition of cow-killing. In the course of the letter he writes:—

"You may be aware that Mr. W. T. Halli, now a fellow-Municipal Councillor, has given notice for a motion in connection with prohibition of Cow-Killing. I beg to approach you with a request that you will be pleased to support the motion. The Bombay Humanitarian League as well as all whose religious sentiments are hitherto rudely being shocked by the daily perpetration of the heinous crime of killing the Cows will feel grateful to you by your kindly supporting the motion and thus conferring a lasting boon upon the mute and helpless animals, which are rightly esteemed as our very life-givers."

HORNBY ROAD-BALLARD PIER SCHEME.

NO JUSTIFICATION FOR PROJECT.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

The original scheme of the Municipal Commissioner approved by the Municipality involves the demolition of 250 buildings, most of which are dwelling houses, the removal of 230 shops and the dishousing of nearly seven thousand citizens. The total cost of the scheme is estimated at Rs. 1,00,21,042 and the recoupment at Rs. 1,59,80,902.

2. The undertaking of a scheme of such vast dimensions, involving the dishousing of such a large number of people at a time when there is a universal cry in our city for residential quarters and it has become difficult even for single families to secure housing accommodation, ought to be justified either by dire necessity or by reasons strong, cogent and irresistible. The reasons given in support of the Scheme by the Municipal Commissioner in his letter dated 20th September 1920 far from being such, are capable of easy and convincing refutation.

3. The main purpose of the scheme is alleged to be the providing of a thorough road from Hornby Road to the Ballard Estate and the scheme has been known as one for the construction of such a road. If the scheme is to be justified at all, it ought to be on one ground only, viz that such a road is most pressing and urgently needed as a means of communication in the city. No such justification has or can be made out. No figures have been published and no substantial arguments set forth to support such a position.

4. The Commissioner argues that "health considerations alone would justify the breaking of this congested locality," though that is not and could not be urged as one of the important reasons for launching the scheme. The Commissioner is studiously silent in the direction of facts and figures. If the scheme is sought to be justified on the grounds of insanitary conditions there are other parts of Bombay like Bhuleswar, Camatipura, Dungi, Mandvi, Girgaum etc., which are much more congested and insanitary and which ought to be improved first and foremost are the fairly sanitary areas of Fort is at all touched.

THE REAL REASON.

We now come to another reason set out in the Commissioner's letter which is the real reason that has called for this scheme viz "to supply the keenly-felt want for first class shop and office accommodation and to provide for the expanding necessities of business." In other words people having houses of their own, thousands of tenants who have been residing in this locality for decades and, over 200 small shopkeepers who have settled there for years are to be forcibly turned out in order to provide "first class shops and office accommodation" for rich people. That the middle class and poor people who live in a particular locality of Bombay are to be compulsorily disoused by thousands and left to shift for themselves during very hard and exceptional times in order that rich business people might have "first class shops" and suitable office accommodation would be an act of tyranny and oppression, an act of grave injustice and wrong which no fair minded corporator should be prepared conscientiously to support.

Enough of accommodation for "first class shops" and business premises will be otherwise available in the near future. The Ballard Pier has already been developed and many offices have been located there. The statement of the Municipal Commissioner that "the residents in this locality are not the craftsmen of this neighbourhood and there will not be any great hardship in their displacement" is wrong and misleading. He has entirely failed to realise the position. Many of the residents have shops in Fort and many more sit in various offices in and near Fort as clerks etc. Here again broad and vague statements are being made without even an attempt to justify them by facts and figures.

The Commissioner states that "the intended development of the Colaba Cotton Green area by Government will provide healthful housing of the population displaced by the scheme and the Municipality have resolved that no one should be disoused for seven years. Could it, with any show of reason, be contended that the land at the Cotton Green will be available at the same rates as are paid by Government for the Fort acquisitions, that the same area will be available at the Cotton Green or elsewhere at the same price or that Government or the Municipality will be prepared to do full justice and equity to all the tenants by giving area for area and providing flat for flat and building for building at the present rents? Unless this is done it is idle to talk of available area or of a period of 7 years which only clouds the issue instead of meeting it straight and square.

MUNICIPAL PROFITEERING!

Attention must be drawn to the various statements made by the Commissioner to show that the recoupment will be both rapid and satisfactory and that bearing in mind the experience of the Churchgate Street scheme there is every probability of "a handsome profit" being made. One cannot too strongly condemn this openly avowed policy of profiteering on the part of a responsible body like the Municipal Corporation. Are thousands of people to be disoused without necessity in order that the Municipality might not incur loss nay, that it might earn handsome profits? Was the law about frontages meant to subserve such a monstrous purpose? It stands to reason that no more acquisition should be made than is absolutely necessary for a purpose whose necessity and utility are beyond dispute. In this connection it may be noted that facing Hornby Road and in Gunbow Street, Farid Bazar Street and Cowasji Patel Street there are big and sanitary houses which are comparatively new and it would be an act of senseless iconoclasm to destroy them. The only object of so doing would be to earn "handsome profits."

That the Commissioner in framing his scheme paid no regard to places of worship, or public utility is evident from the fact that his scheme involved the acquisition of 3 Agaries, part of a Jain temple, schools, dispensaries and one Wedding place "Manekji Seth's Wady."

To sum up. No adequate and just reasons have been established for launching a scheme involving the dishousing of thousands of citizens and taking away the honest employment of 230 shopkeepers. The necessity of a new road between Fort Street and Churchgate Street has not and cannot be established. The area covered by the scheme is not so insanitary as to need such drastic and urgent measures, in fact it is far more sanitary than other parts of the city which should first be handled. The provision of first class shops and office accommodation at the cost of dishousing thousands of inhabitants and taking away the means of livelihood of 230 shopkeepers would be an act of unjustifiable oppression and tyranny which no thoughtful Corporation mindful of the good of the ratepayers and citizens should be prepared to uphold.
